

Contact: Amy Schreiber
Executive Assistant for Advancement and Administration
Fort Wayne Museum of Art
260. 422. 6467
amy.schreiber@fwmoa.org

International Artist Visits Fort Wayne to Finish Pint N Slice Mural May 14

May 4, 2016 (Fort Wayne, IN) – In 2014, the alley wall of Pint N Slice got a makeover from Philadelphia-based artist Yi "Nosego" Goodwin with the artist's addition of an otherworldly, fantastical hedgehog-like illustration. He is returning to Fort Wayne May 14 to finish what he started.

NoseGo is an internationally-recognized artist with a passion for illustration and media arts. He mixes fine art with a contemporary style to deliver highly energetic work. His designs feature an assemblage of patterns, vibrant colors and characters derived from his imagination and his surrounding environment.

The artist was featured in the 2014 Fort Wayne Museum of Art exhibit "Biological Canvas" organized by freelance curator Josef Zimmerman, which brought together artists who referenced biology—animals, natural processes, human systems, and other elements of the natural world—in their work in the context of contemporary culture. While he was in Fort Wayne, the owners of Pint N Slice welcomed NoseGo to create a mural on their building. Now, it's time to add the next layer to this work of art. The public is welcome to visit the artist as he finishes his work.

About the Fort Wayne Museum of Art: Beginning with art classes in 1888 given by J. Ottis Adams and later William Forsyth, the Fort Wayne Museum of Art has evolved into a center for the visual arts community in Northeast Indiana. Regularly exhibiting regional and nationally acclaimed artists, the FWMoA also boasts an extensive permanent collection of American Art, including the Steven Sorman Archives and more than 300 pieces of Brilliant Cut Glass. The Museum is committed to the collection, preservation, presentation and interpretation of American and related art to engage broad and diverse audiences throughout the community and region, and add value to their lives. The Fort Wayne Museum of Art is a funded partner of Arts United of Greater Fort Wayne. This activity made possible, in part, with support from the Indiana Arts Commission and the National Endowment for the Arts, a federal agency.

###